Welcome

Welcome to the 2017 Texas Student Council and Honor Society Advisor Workshop sponsored by the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals (TASSP) and Texas Association of Student Councils (TASC). Student Council and Honor Society complement and support each other at the campus level, as well as share many common student members. Therefore, this workshop is designed to provide training experiences in areas that are specific to each and common to both sets of advisors.

TASSP/TASC is excited and proud to host this event and welcome exemplary educators to San Marcos for a weekend of motivation, inspiration and education. The program was carefully designed to offer a dynamic combination of peer and professional presenters who will be a great resource for student council and honor society advisors in Texas.

TASSP/TASC staff is here to help you make the most of your workshop experience. If you need anything, don't hesitate to ask. Additionally, Elancia Felder, Program Manager for Honor Societies, is in attendance to provide support to honor society advisers. Partner organizations and exhibitors that support the goals and purposes of these student groups are also in attendance to distribute information (see pages 12-13), and the TASC student leadership store is stocked with great materials available for purchase. The bookstore will be open on Saturday (8:00a - 5:00p) and Sunday (8:00a - 11:00a).

The TASSP motto is "Above All, Students First." We believe that when student councils and honor societies collaborate effectively on campus and when advisors receive meaningful training, students are best served in Texas schools. It is our hope that this workshop will provide you with the experiences necessary to lead these exemplary students in your schools. Best wishes for a great workshop.

Patrick Maurer

Patrick Maurer is an award-winning motivational speaker and leadership coach with a proven track record of breaking through the everyday noise to transform campuses, communities, and individuals of all ages.
He is on a mission to not just inspire, but to actually empower. Patrick addresses the critical need to develop today's leaders with the proficiency to make the most of their time and contemplate potential impact.

2017-18 TASC State Service Project:

Deepen Your Heart. Reach Out Your Hand.

Dear TASC,

The state officer team challenges you to address the world-wide tragedy of human trafficking. Human trafficking is real. Human trafficking is relevant. Human trafficking is resolvable.

Human trafficking includes labor trafficking, organ trafficking, and sex trafficking. It happens across the world. It happens right here in Texas, and it most often begins with the most vulnerable, the children.

As we visualize the four chambers of the human heart, we see four areas through which TASC members can combat modern-day slavery.

It's time to educate, collaborate, activate, and evaluate. Let's join together in the battle to end modern day slavery.

Deepen Your Heart. Reach Out Your Hand.

Visit the TASC website to view 2017-18 State Project information.

Yours in leadership,

Collin Guilbeau, Blessina Babu, Kwame Ambaah, Jack Tucker, Claire Doan

Lisa Gilbert and Vicki Long ..... Veramendi A
Middle Level Advisors, Welcome to the TASC Family
(For ML StuCo) Welcome to the TASC family! Leave this session with the "nuts and bolts" of student council as well as simple projects and ideas your students can implement as soon as you return to school.

Lianna Gantz and Chad Cooke..... Veramendi B
My Brain Has Too Many Tabs Open
(For StuCo) Overwhelmed? Think you have to do it all or don't even know where to start? Join us for some back to basics to help keep you afloat or get you started. A variety of topics include: paperwork/forms, project ideas, networking, and reminders of how to keep yourself sane!

JC Pohl ..... Veramendi C
Building School Culture from the Inside Out
(For All) Building a strong school culture should be the first priority of every school leader. It is proven to decrease bullying, enhance academic performance, and increase student engagement. This session reveals a framework for giving students a voice and empowering them to take ownership of their school so you won't have to do it alone. This session focuses on tested methods that build resiliency, develop positive culture, and connect students across your campus and community.

Paul Branagan..... Spring Lake A
Creating a STRONG School Culture Through Student Empowerment and Creative Branding
(For All) Creating a STRONG school culture is the essential ingredient to a successful school community. Having a culture that students can connect with throughout all of the student activity programs in the school is even more powerful. This workshop will focus on creative ways to engage your school community to come together to build a school culture that is engaging, spirit-filled, and most importantly, STRONG.

Tommy Calais and Antoinette Hernandez..... Spring Lake B
Building Blocks for New High School StuCo Advisors: Part 1
(For new HS StuCo advisors) Join experienced advisors to cover the basics high school student council advisors need to build a strong program. Topics include constitutions, elections, officer roles, managing a council, and project ideas to make your council effective and your role as an advisor meaningful and successful.

Patrick Maurer ..... Spring Lake C
Creating Community in a (dis)Connected World
(For All) Facebook, FaceTime, Twitter, Snapchat, Pinterest, Tumblr, Vine…We have SOCIAL media, but our young leaders tend to lack strong community. How do we build better relationships that allow our students better face time, not just FaceTime? How can we better equip them with the skills to connect when they are not connected?

JC Pohl .....Veramendi C
Building Resilient Students Through Your Leadership Program
(For All) Right now, Texas has a greater need to build resilient students than ever before. So many are traumatized by current disasters and events. Texas student to counselor ratios are sometimes 500 to 1. With the knowledge that teen pressures, school safety, and student performance are at the forefront of all educators' minds, maybe it is time your leadership program extended itself. Learn how peer to peer programming can welcome a new wave of student leaders who can help build resilience in students across your campus.

Houston Kraft.....Spring Lake A
The Conversation You Must Have with Your Leaders
(For All) Houston is a professional speaker, leadership trainer, and kindness advocate who has worked with over 500 schools over the past 6 years. He will talk about the 3 conversations with student leaders that change their focus, their heart, and their results. Plus, you will walk away with some priceless tools that shape the daily practice of your classroom. www.houstonkraft.com

Patrick Maurer ..... Spring Lake C
Beyond the Poster: Marketing That Matters
(For All) Think Small. Got Milk? The Old Spice Guy. All great MARKETING campaigns that impacted the way we think. Yet on our campuses, we tend to focus on the advertisements rather than considering the whole marketing picture. In this workshop find new ways to approach your events and implement a MARKETING strategy rather than simple advertisements.

Growing Dynamic Groups
(For All) Have you ever worked in a group that just didn't click? Have you ever witnessed what happens when groups aren't successful together? This session will focus on building strong groups through a tested structure. This process works for all size groups, from your officers, to your classes, to your council, to your entire school. After learning the process, we will practice some activities to help you feel comfortable leading them.

Sarah Millhorn and Lisa Gilbert..... Spring Lake B
Not in My School! Not in Texas!
(For All) Slavery is an ancient abuse that still persists today and is one of the greatest human rights challenges of history. Recent research says there are 313,000 victims of human trafficking in Texas alone. While it may be largely hidden from sight, people are still trapped by different forces---less visible but powerful nonetheless. TASC has taken on the challenge of modern day slavery as its state service project. We invite honor society to join in this battle. Learn how your student leaders, both middle level and high school, can participate.

Patrick Maurer ..... Spring Lake C
The Process of Purpose: Finding the Power of Motivation
(For All) How do we teach our student leaders to be intrinsically motivated rather than extrinsically? How do we cultivate care and service, increase resiliency, and build a foundational core? Check out this engaging workshop that will answer these questions and provide you activities and an approach to use in your own life and with your leaders.

National Honor Society
National Junior Honor Society Information

The National Honor Society (NHS) and National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) are the nation's premier organizations established to recognize outstanding high school and middle level students. More than just an honor roll, NHS and NJHS serve to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character (and Citizenship for NJHS). Both the NHS and NJHS are sponsored and supervised by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) which appoints a National Council - the controlling body of NHS. The day-to-day administration of NHS/NJHS is handled by the NASSP Department of Student Activities, headquartered in Reston, VA.
