

To TASC Board of Directors and Director Patty Wangler,

On behalf of the North Mesquite Student Council, please accept this letter as the formal declaration of intent for the State Parliamentarian School of TASC for the 2024-2025 school year. The NMHS Student Council is dedicated to building a community of students, parents, and community leaders focused on making a difference in children's lives. North Mesquite Student Council has chosen to run with "Wishing Together, Changing Lives Forever: Make a Wish, Make a Difference." This platform seeks to spread awareness, foster support, and celebrate the impact of transforming lives by making wishes come true for children facing critical illnesses through partnerships with the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Our platform will highlight numerous ways in which councils can actively support the Make-A-Wish Foundation by engaging in diverse projects on their campuses. We aspire to raise awareness by sharing stories of hope and resilience, emphasizing the transformative power of wishes. Our goal is to inspire councils throughout the state to actively participate and garner support. We encourage councils to initiate projects that promote donations and volunteering, ultimately ensuring that every eligible child's wish is granted and becomes a reality.

Jordyn Hernandez, the student representative and Kristen Haywood, the advisor representative, both know and understand the time commitment and duties involved with the office of Parliamentarian. If elected, we pledge to serve the state and TASC with integrity and diligence. Jordyn currently serves on the Youth Leadership Council (YLC) for Make-A-Wish North Texas and she has the knowledge, experience, and access to help other councils bring Make-A-Wish to life on their campuses.

Although North Mesquite has yet to serve in an officer capacity, we are excited and eager to step into this journey. North Mesquite High School and its representatives are prepared for their duties as TASC State Parliamentarian school and if elected we will be ecstatic to fulfill our duties.

Sincerely,

Jordyn Hernandez, Student Representative

Kristen Haywood, Advisor Representative

TJ Reed, North Mesquite Principal
