Dear Texas Association of Student Councils:

Pebble Hills High School is proud to announce its intent to run for TASC Parliamentarian for the 2023-2024 term. We are proud of the accomplishments of our council and feel ready to take on this next challenge and serve on the TASC Board.

Although we are a relatively young school, Pebble Hills has been very involved with TASC at both the district and state level. As a member school of District 9, Pebble Hills has attended every D9 Conference since 2018. Our school has served on the D9 Board as Secretary in 2019 – 2020 and as Treasurer for a term that runs 2022 – 2024. Pebble Hills has hosted a District 9 Valentine Social and has had several students serve as JC at our D9 Winter Retreat. We are proud to have earned Sweepstakes each year since 2019 and are hopeful that we will do the same this year. In addition, we have attended Summer Leadership Workshop and Advanced Leadership Workshop over the years.

Our platform, “Mission: Paws-ible”, centers around helping animal shelters across the state. Animal shelters are overcrowded and underfunded. As a state, we can have a positive impact on the lives of these animals.

The Pebble Hills Student Council looks forward to sharing our ideas and working together with all councils from around the state. We are prepared to serve the state and thank TASC for this opportunity.

Respectfully,
