Dear Texas Association of Student Councils,

Rockwall High School formally submits our intent to run for the office of Texas Association of Student Councils Vice President. We agree to perform all duties and responsibilities of the office as required by TASC. Rockwall High School pledges to respect and honor the values of TASC and promote TASC in a positive manner.

Rockwall High School Student Council is determined to help our school and community to the best of our abilities. Our continued work with charities that help those in need is a paramount focus of our group. We partnered with Helping Hands of Rockwall County to bring in over 22,000 lbs of food during our food drive. RHS StuCo also has a focus on helping our local Rainbow Room of Rockwall County by conducting back-to-school supply drives, fundraising through spirit nights at local restaurants, and helping bring awareness to child abuse through our pinwheel garden campaigns during Child Abuse Awareness Month. Our focus on helping local kids that have been the victims of abuse is why we selected "Be a Light in the Shadows" bringing awareness to child abuse as our campaign focus.

Our hope is by bringing awareness to the prevalent problem of child abuse, TASC Councils can create a focus on helping local rainbow rooms and child advocacy centers in their honorable mission of service to children and the families that foster them. Our dream is that child abuse would diminish and dissappear, but until then we will work to bring awareness to this issue by being a light in the shadows.
