

Dear Texas Association of Student Councils,

In the name of Veterans Memorial High School's student council and body, we are formally declaring our intent to run for the position of TASC Parliamentarian. We are extremely grateful for this opportunity. We know our student council can exceed all expectations associated with the role of Parliamentarian.

This year, Veterans Memorial High School chose to truly live up to its name, and show appreciation and gratitude to our local military Veteran community through drives, assemblies and public events. These events garnered public support and drew more people into our tight-knit community. The Vets Serving Vets Project has earned success that we hope to share across the state of Texas.

Veterans Memorial High School has consistently pushed the boundary on what's possible for its students, and we believe it's time to bring that mindset to the state level with help from our student representative, Lilia Hetland, and student council advisor, Tatum Moeller-Hagen. Connecting students across the state and building excitement about student leadership will always be a difficult task, but one we believe we can accomplish.

We believe that a position on the TASC board will allow us to accomplish our goals, and help other councils across the state do the same. Thanks to the Texas Association of Student Councils, we have an opportunity to form a strong community in the state of Texas based on student leadership and ambition.

Sincerely,

Lilia Hetland
Student Representative

Tatum Moeller-Hagen
Student Council Advisor

Scott Walker
Principal
