

Lawrence Dale Bell High School

January 9, 2026

To the Director and Members of the Texas Association of Student Councils,

The Lawrence D. Bell High School Student Council submits this letter to declare its intent to run for Vice President of the Texas Association of Student Councils. L.D. Bell Student Council is grounded in service, leadership, and student engagement, upholding the pillars of TASC: citizenship, scholarship, leadership, human relations, and cultural values.

Our platform, See the Unseen, focuses on suicide prevention and student well-being. This initiative is not centered on invading privacy or monitoring others, but on understanding why kindness matters. Many students face academic pressure, social expectations, and personal challenges that are not immediately apparent. When these struggles remain unnoticed, students may feel isolated or unsupported. See the Unseen encourages school communities to lead with kindness, respect, and care in everyday interactions.

The advisor, Sarah Keith, and student representative, Karma Kamel, are prepared to fulfill the responsibilities of the Vice President with dedication and professionalism. L.D. Bell Student Council brings experience in leadership, service, and collaboration, ready to extend its impact statewide.

We appreciate your consideration; Lawrence D. Bell High School would be honored to serve as your 2026-2027 TASC Vice President and looks forward to inspiring positive change.

Sincerely,

Karma Kamel
Student Representative

SEE THE UNSEEN

Lawrence D. Bell High School

PLATFORM

Many students walk into school every day carrying struggles no one can see. According to the World Health Organization, an estimated 720,000 people die by suicide worldwide each year, and countless students face emotional challenges that go unnoticed long before they reach a breaking point. See the Unseen is a student-led initiative focused on building school cultures rooted in kindness, connection, and awareness. Rather than asking students to diagnose or intrude, this platform empowers them to notice, include, and support one another through intentional acts of kindness and peer-led initiatives. By partnering with counselors, student councils, and local resources, See the Unseen provides schools with practical tools to foster empathy, strengthen peer connections, and ensure students know where to turn for help. This platform aims to create safer, more compassionate campuses across Texas, where no student feels invisible, leadership is rooted in care, and hope is something we actively build together.
