Title:	Hendrix Family Donation Drive
Objective:	To raise money for the family who lost everything in a house fire on 12/24/2011
Indicate Target Group:	Community members
Resources Used:	Facebook, high school library, local news stations
Description:	After hearing on Facebook about how one of our students had lost everything in a house fire during the early morning on Christmas Eve our student council co-presidents went into action. They quickly activated our StuCo phone tree and Facebook page asking everyone to help. A time and location was set where donations would be collected. Between 4:00 and 6:00 pm StuCo members were at the high school to accept donations of cash, food, clothing and furniture for the family. Word spread quickly and three local television stations came to interview those who organized this event. It was a huge success. Over $11,000.00 in cash, checks, and gift cards was collected; as well as clothing, furniture, food, and offers of temporary housing in just 2hrs.

Title:	Pink-To-Do Braceletes
Objective:	To help raise awareness and fundraise for breast cancer.
Indicate Target Group:	Student Body & Community
Resources Used:	Bandanas, scissors, buckets, tape, students, & deication
Description:	October is breast cancer awarness month and to show our support, we can up with the idea to team up with a local breast cancer organization called Pink-To-Do. The week before October, we brought over 300 bandanas and ripped them up into strips about an 1" thick. Then we grabed 3 different colors which were orange, pink, and white. Then, taped one of the ends and started to braid the bandanas together. After that we tied the ends together, which later formed a bracelete around your wrist. Finally, we sold them at the football game the week before October for a donation of two dollars or more. Instantly, we sold out before the 3rd quarter. The final total of the sale was over a little over $3000. The sale was 100% non-profitable.

Title:	Veteran's Day Assembly
Objective:	To honor the Veteran's in the Andrews community.
Indicate Target Group:	Andrews Veteran's, community members, and Andrews High School students and faculty.
Resources Used:	Student Council used a gym in Andrews High School to seat all students and veterans. Student Council purchased decorations. Multiple school groups participated in the program. Judges for essay and art contests included multiple English teachers and fine arts instructors. Student Council recruited 2 speakers for the event. The custodial staff laid flooring in the gym and set up over 300 chairs for our honored guests. A stage was erected and decorated as a platform for the speakers. Risers and chairs were set up for the choir and band performances. Entry tables were set up for the Veterans to sign in and the golf team drove the elderly to the front door using golf carts donated by the Andrews Country Club. The Veterans of Foreign Wars were on hand to present the flags. Calendar magnets were purchased as a piece of memorabilia for the Veterans to take home with them. The office staff created invitations to be mailed out and programs for the event.
Description:	Around six weeks prior to the event, invitations were mailed out to the veterans of our community. On the weekend before Veteran's Day, the custodial staff prepared the gym with flooring, a stage, chairs, risers, tables, and extra seating. Student Council decorated the stage, gym, and tables. On Veteran's Day, Student Council hosted the Veteran's Day Assembly. The boy's golf team drove the elderly guests to the front door in golf carts. Upon arrival, guests were asked to sign in and receive a program and lapel pin. The VFW Post posted and retired the colors and beginning and end of program. The Pledge of Allegiance was said and the A Cappella Choir sang the National Anthem and variety of other patriotic songs. The AHS Band played the Armed Forces Salute and each Veteran was recognized by branch. Guest speaker was a veteran of Operation Desert Storm who spoke of his experiences while in the military.

Objective:	To have students, groups, faculty, and staff donate money to help a school in Uganda acquire uniforms.
Indicate Target Group:	Awach Track Team (High School in Uganda)
Resources Used:	meetings, emails, monetary donations
Description:	Coordinated by Student Council, the Eastwood High School student body, through an Eastwood alumni, formed a partnership with Pangaea Educational Development, (PED) and organization that provides services to the needs of individuals in developing countries such as Uganda. Awach, a high school in Uganda was in need of track uniforms. The necessity was beyond the material possession, it was about creating school pride and unity, knowing they are part of a team. Student council created a presentation and met with representatives of every organization campus. The goal, to raise funds to purchase and ship 65 track uniforms and shorts. After meetings, emails, and coordination; organizations collected and transferred funds into an account. When finished, a total of $2,001.00 were collected and after purchasing the uniforms, they were sent to PED headquarters and shipped to Awach in Uganda.

Title:	Hendrix Family Donation Drive
Objective:	To raise money for the family who lost everything in a house fire on 12/24/2011
Indicate Target Group:	Community members
Resources Used:	Facebook, high school library, local news stations
Description:	After hearing on Facebook about how one of our students had lost everything in a house fire during the early morning on Christmas Eve our student council co-presidents went into action. They quickly activated our StuCo phone tree and Facebook page asking everyone to help. A time and location was set where donations would be collected. Between 4:00 and 6:00 pm StuCo members were at the high school to accept donations of cash, food, clothing and furniture for the family. Word spread quickly and three local television stations came to interview those who organized this event. It was a huge success. Over $11,000.00 in cash, checks, and gift cards was collected; as well as clothing, furniture, food, and offers of temporary housing in just 2hrs.

Title:	Pink-To-Do Braceletes
Objective:	To help raise awareness and fundraise for breast cancer.
Indicate Target Group:	Student Body & Community
Resources Used:	Bandanas, scissors, buckets, tape, students, & deication
Description:	October is breast cancer awarness month and to show our support, we can up with the idea to team up with a local breast cancer organization called Pink-To-Do. The week before October, we brought over 300 bandanas and ripped them up into strips about an 1" thick. Then we grabed 3 different colors which were orange, pink, and white. Then, taped one of the ends and started to braid the bandanas together. After that we tied the ends together, which later formed a bracelete around your wrist. Finally, we sold them at the football game the week before October for a donation of two dollars or more. Instantly, we sold out before the 3 rd quarter. The final total of the sale was over a little over $3000. The sale was 100% non-profitable.
