

Alamo Association of Student Councils, District XV of the Texas Association of Student Councils

Welcome back to another exciting school year that will include many opportunities to participate in District XV events. Please take note of the events and dates listed below. We hope your council will be able to attend this year's AASC activities.

We have included both TASC Conferences on this list, even though we do not organize these events.

Prior to each event, you will receive more detailed information and registration procedures either via e-mail or on the AASC website.
